Four things worth watching for on 2026-08-09

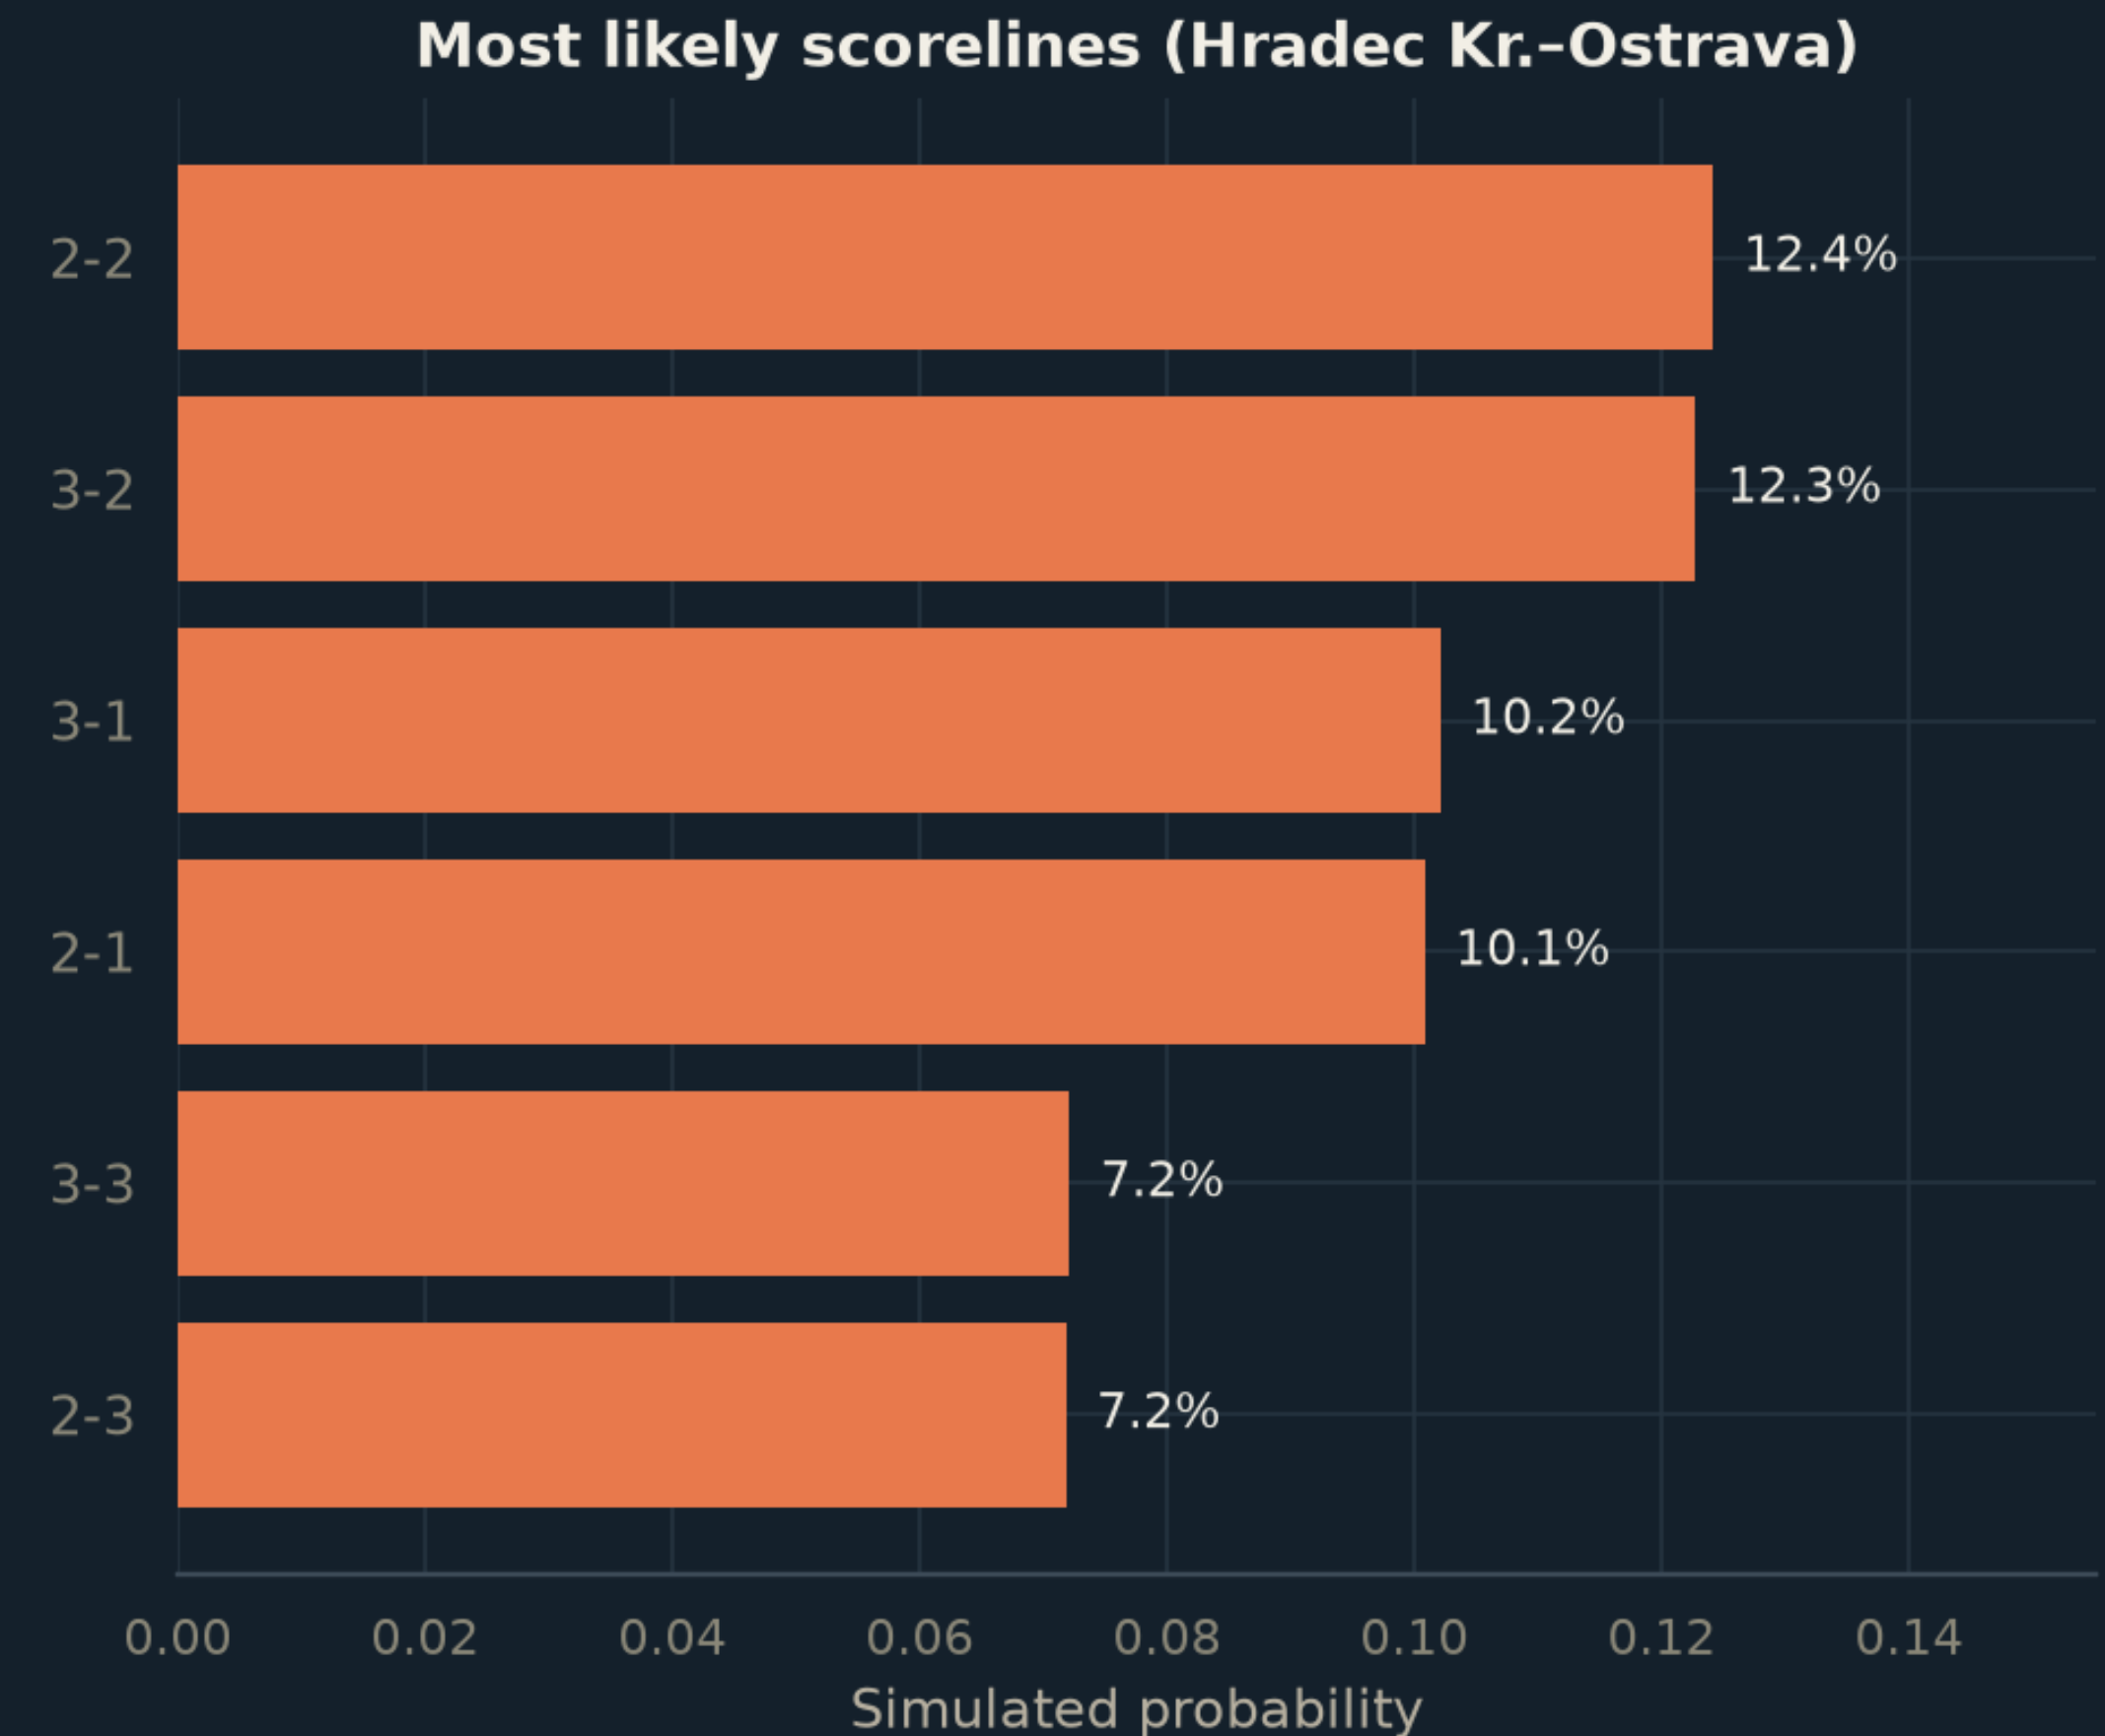

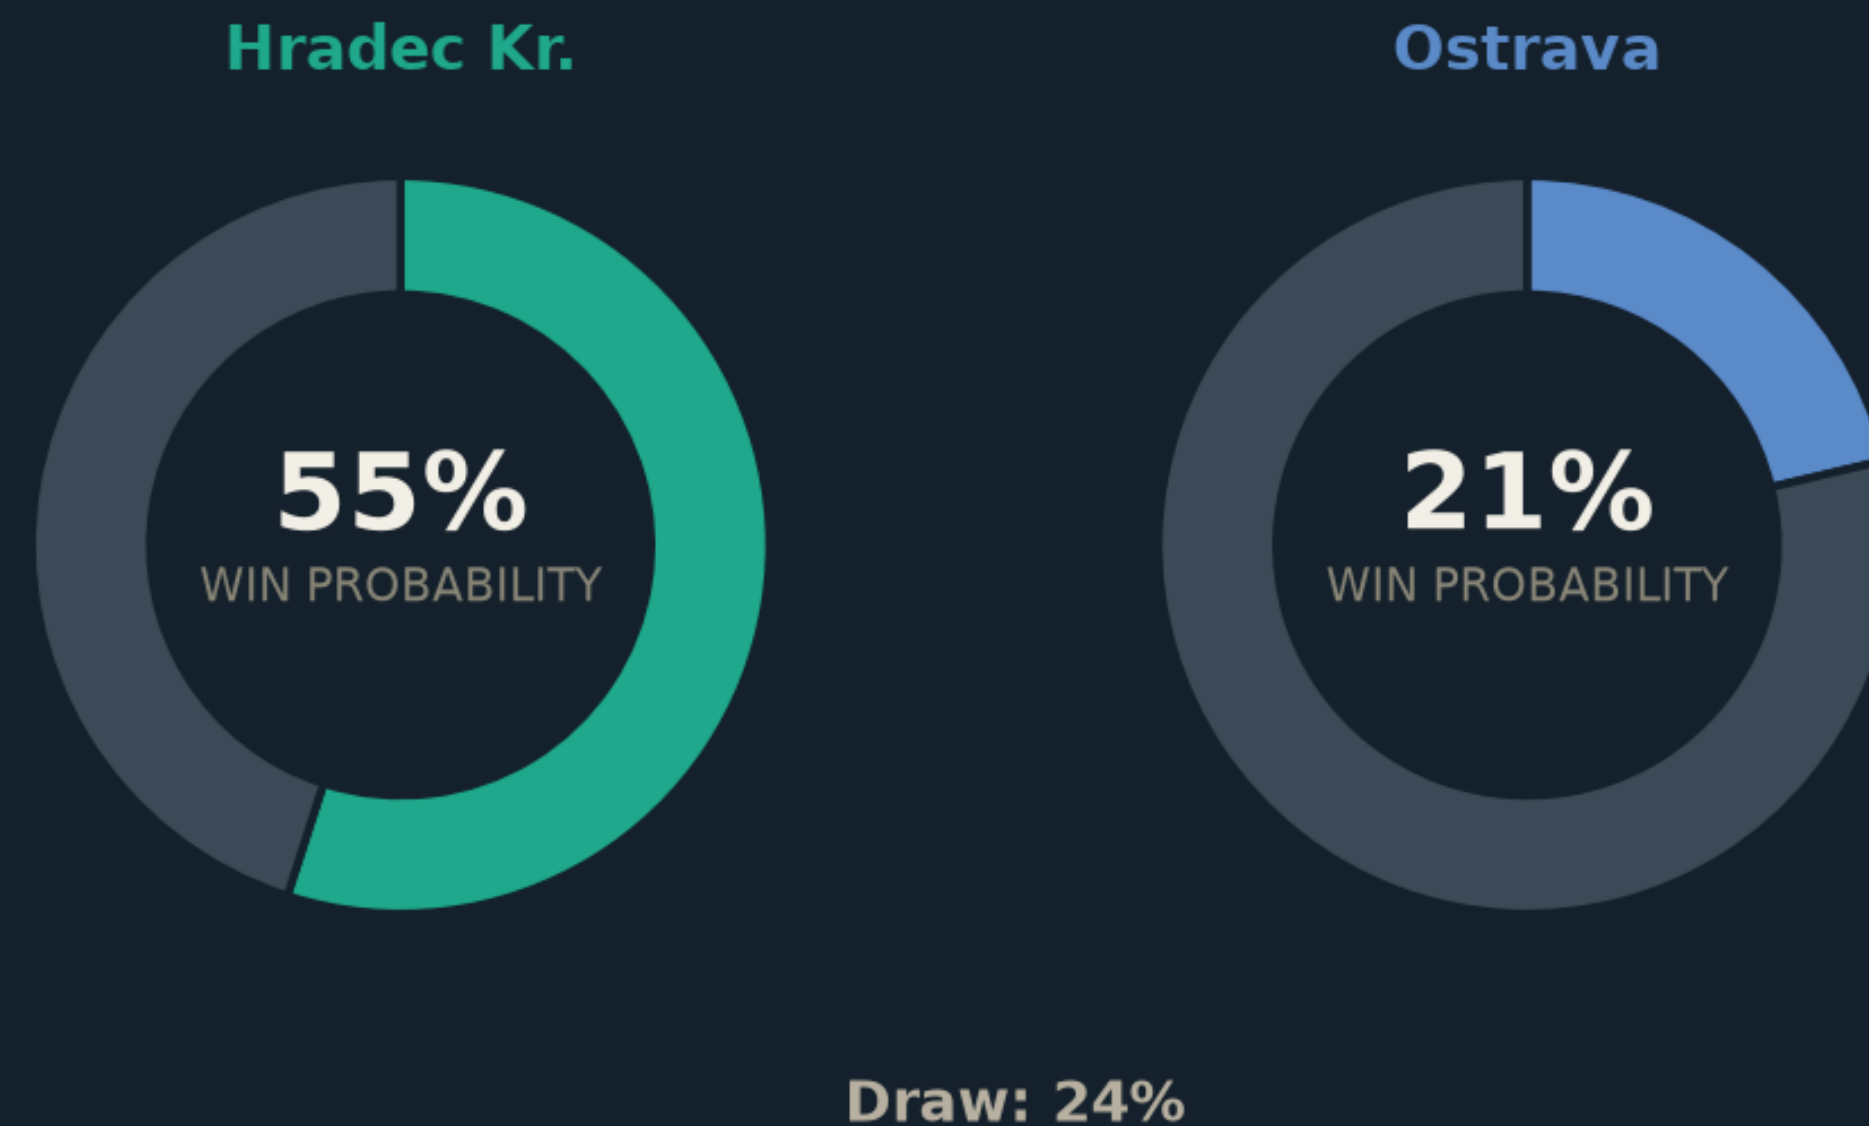

Reasoned from each side's matchday-1 numbers

- 1. Hradec conceded far less (0.52 xG) than Ostrava did (1.95 xG) -- Ostrava's front line will need to work harder for clean chances than they did at Zlín, where they won 1-0 despite giving up almost as much chance quality as they created.
- 2. Ostrava pressed considerably higher on opening day (PPDA 10.1 vs Hradec's 18.8) -- if that intensity travels on the road, Hradec's buildup play will be under pressure from the first whistle.
- 3. Ostrava actually had more final-third touches in their opener (231 vs Hradec's 184) but converted them less efficiently (1.96 xG from 13 shots vs Hradec's 2.62 from 10) -- territory alone won't be enough without sharper shot selection away from home.
- 4. Both sides won their openers by a single goal, so this is a tight early-season form clash rather than a form mismatch: Hradec's 2-1 home win over FK Pardubice against Ostrava's 1-0 away win at FC Zlín -- similar scorelines, but Hradec did it with clearly the better underlying chance quality.
