Four things worth watching for on 2026-08-01

Reasoned from each side's matchday-1 numbers

- 1. Slavia conceded far less (0.34 xG) than Ostrava did (1.95 xG) -- Ostrava's back line will need a cleaner day than the one at Zlín, where they won 1-0 despite giving up almost as much chance quality as they created.
- 2. Ostrava pressed higher on opening day (PPDA 10.1 vs 11.3) -- expect them to try to disrupt Slavia's build-up early rather than sit off.
- 3. Ostrava actually had more final-third touches in their opener (231 vs Slavia's 150) but converted them far less efficiently (1.96 xG from 13 shots vs Slavia's 4.17 from 15) -- territory alone won't be enough without sharper shot selection.
- 4. Both sides won their openers, so this is a genuine early-season form clash: Ostrava's tight 1-0 away at FC Zlín against Slavia's 5-1 demolition of 1. FC Slovácko at home -- a much bigger margin of victory, even if Ostrava's underlying shot volume wasn't far off.
