Each axis normalized to the better of the two teams that match (=1.0) · different opponents

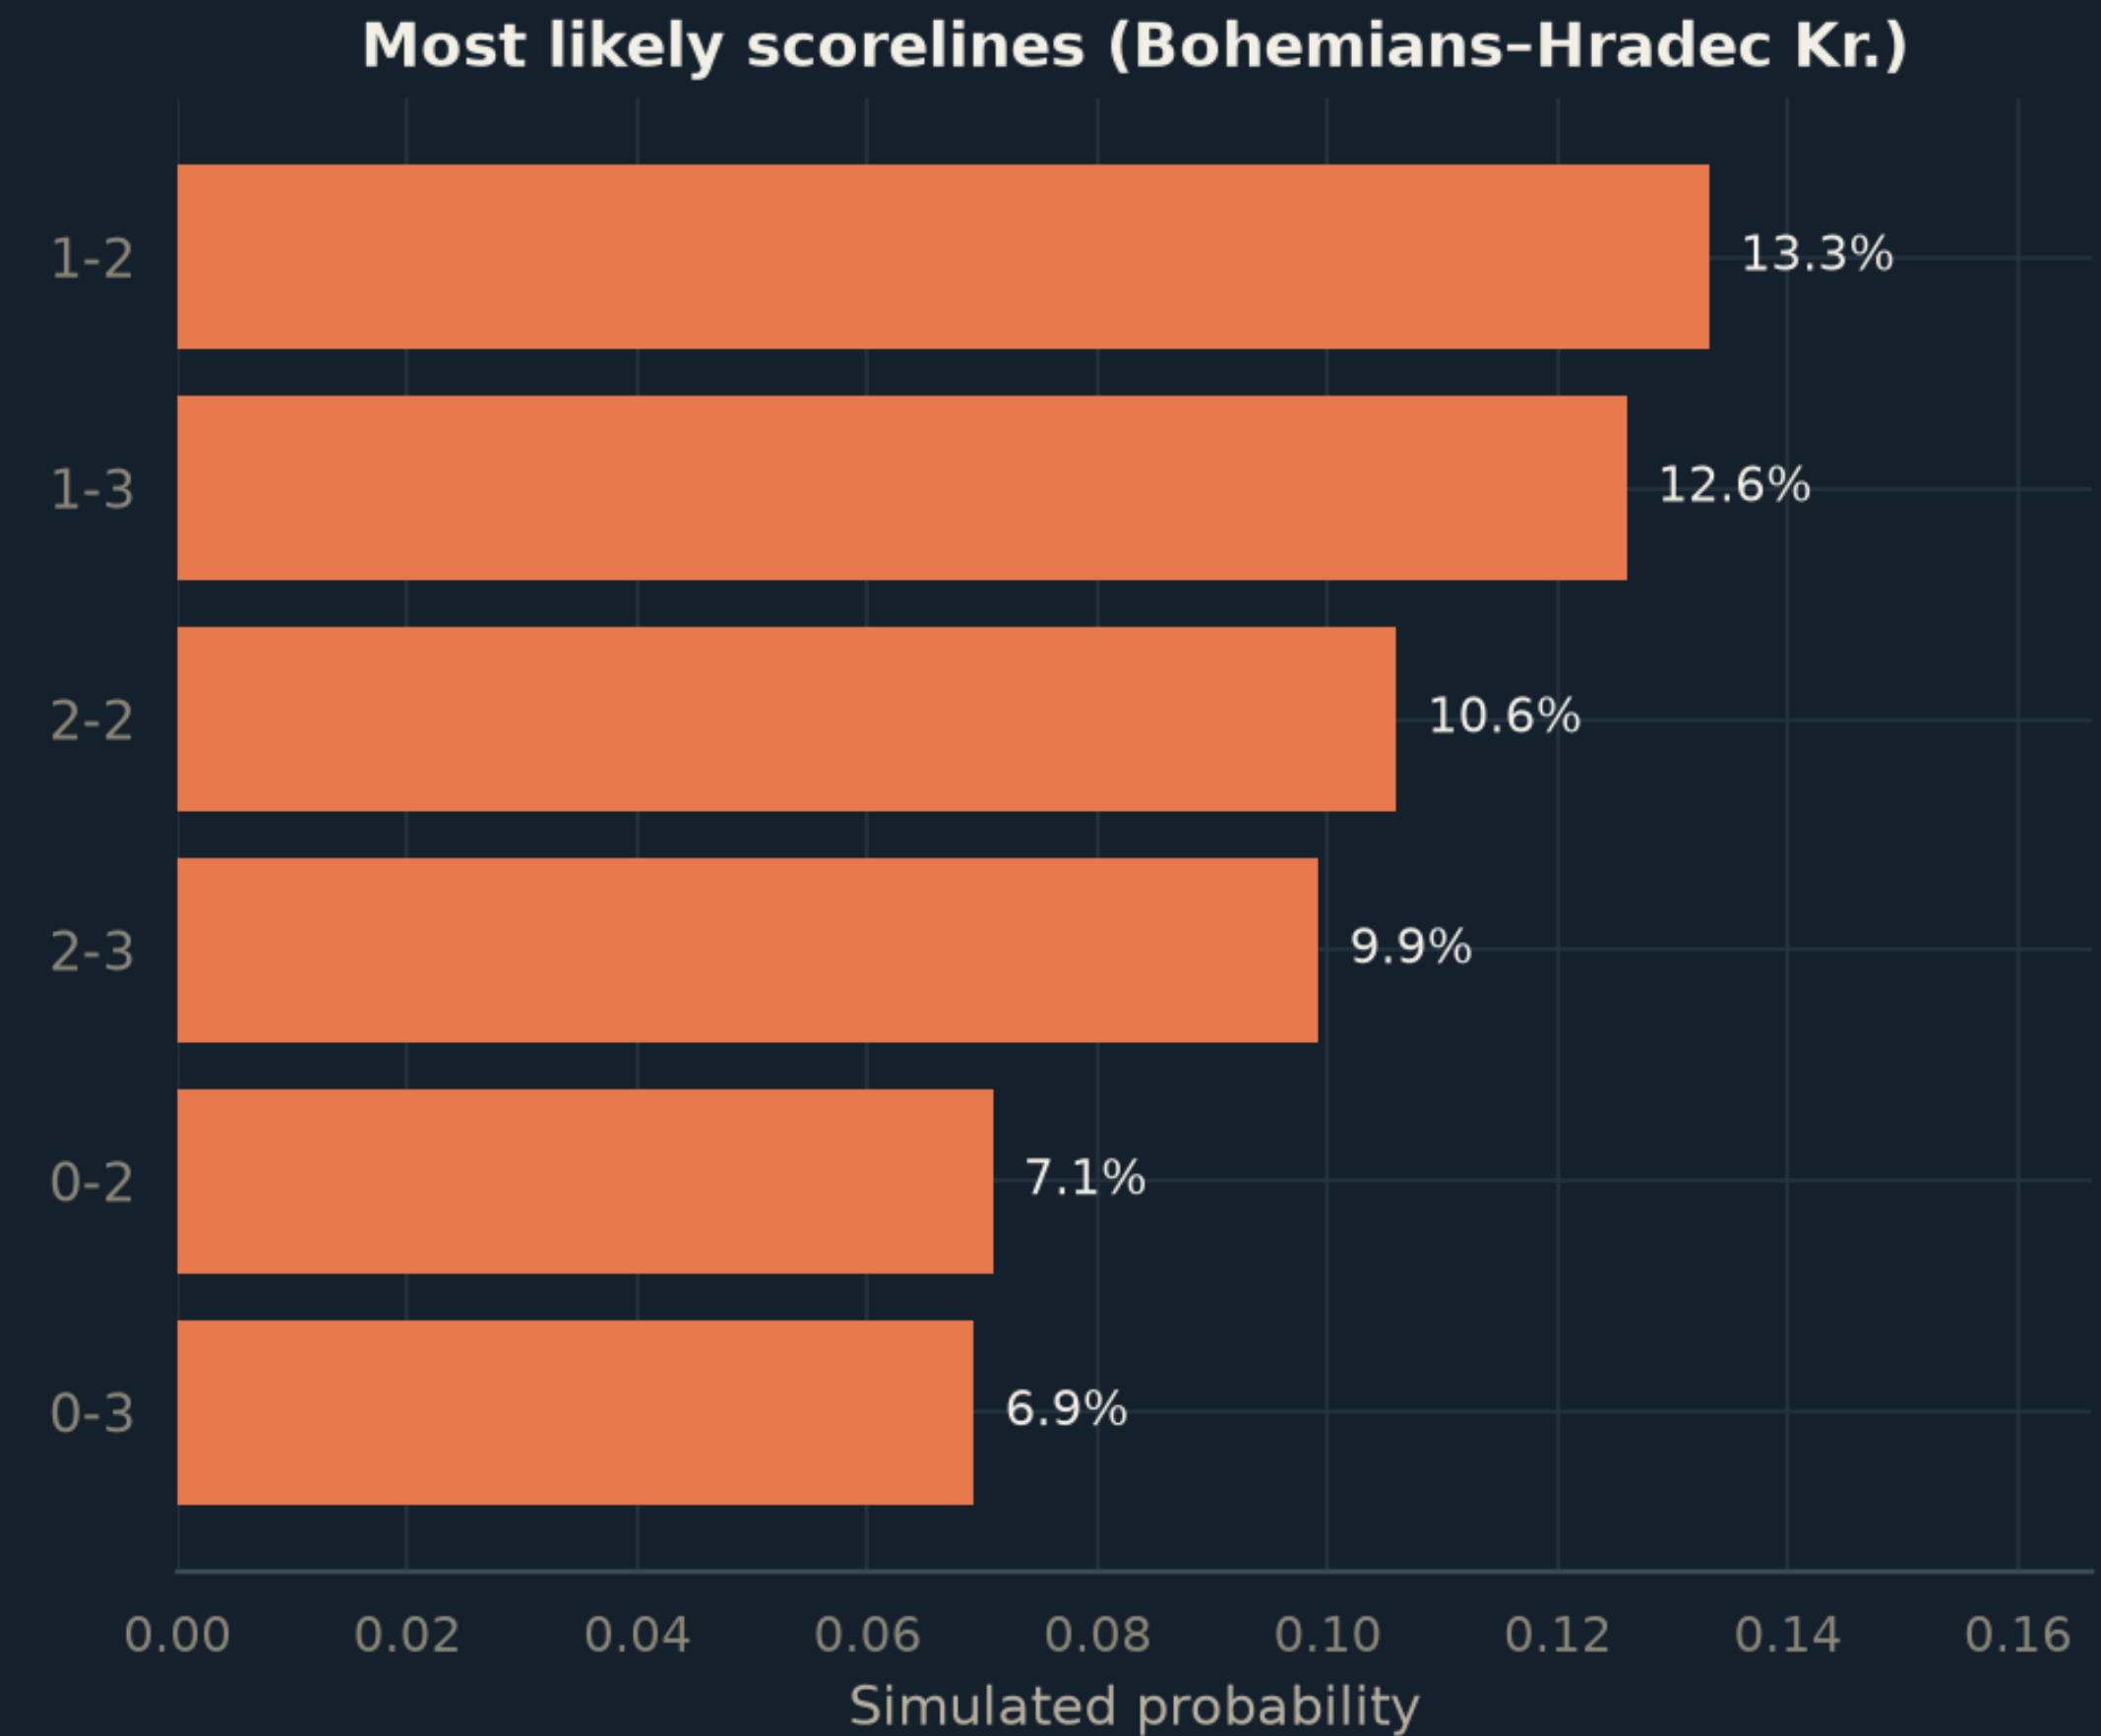

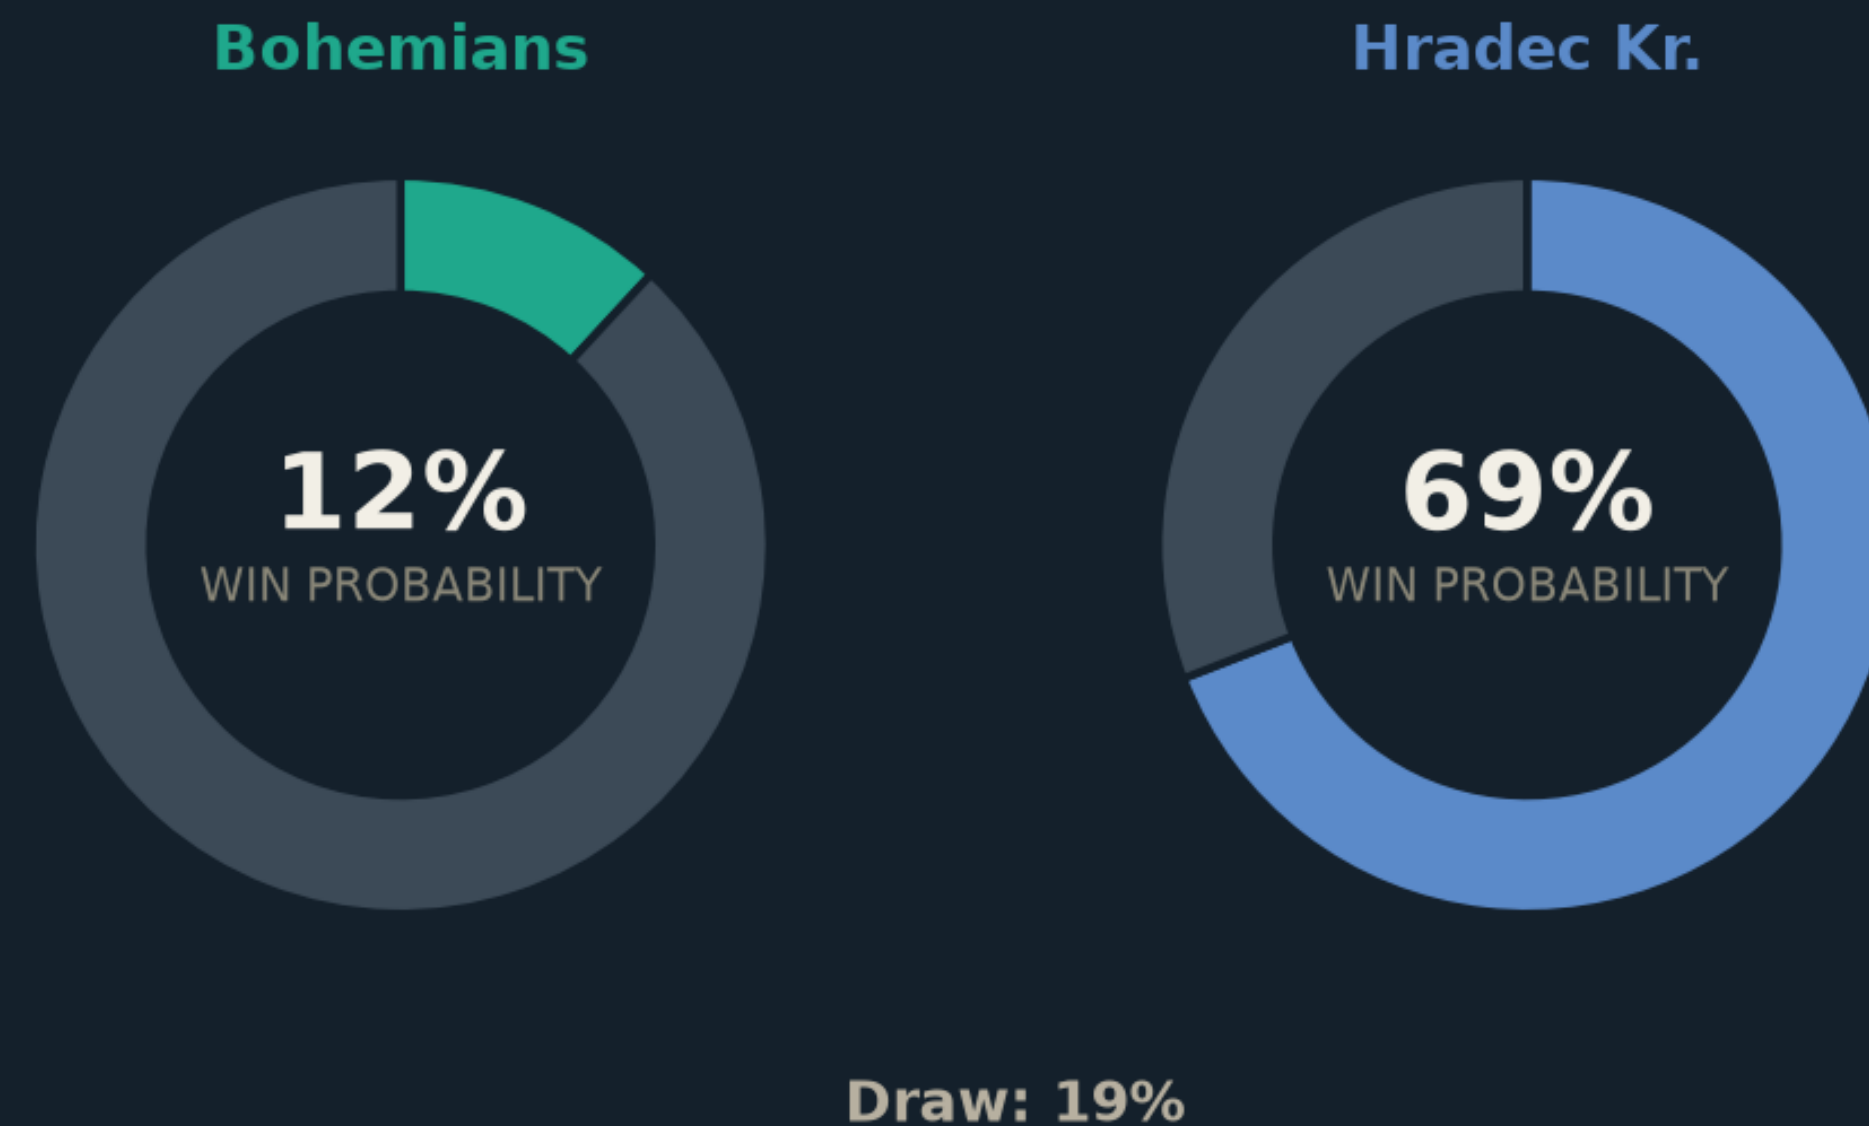

Four things worth watching for on 2026-08-02

Reasoned from each side's matchday-1 numbers

1. Hradec conceded far less (0.52 xG) than Bohemians did (3.14 xG) -- Bohemians' back line will need a cleaner day than the one at Teplice.
2. Bohemians pressed higher on opening day (PPDA 14.2 vs 18.8) -- expect them to try to disrupt Hradec's build-up early rather than sit off.
3. Bohemians actually had more final-third touches in their opener (195 vs Hradec's 184) despite losing it -- territory alone did not convert into chances or points, and won't be enough here either without better shot quality.
4. Bohemians play at home at Stadion Ďolíček, where their season starts against a Hradec side that has won its opener; the double edge of first home game plus facing the form team is the clearest storyline in.
